NEW YORK (August 16, 2016) — For the first time in its series history, Live From Lincoln Center takes its show on the road presenting The Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center in a broadcast from Kentucky's Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill. This special broadcast event, filmed on location, captures the unique intimacy of a chamber music concert with cameras and equipment located inside the Meadow View Barn, a restored tobacco barn at Shaker Village amidst 3,000 acres of rolling Bluegrass country. This episode is directed by Habib Azar, with Elliot Caplan producing documentary segments showcasing the Chamber Music Society at Shaker Village, as well as the location's rich history. Live From Lincoln Center's “Simple Gifts: The Chamber Music Society at Shaker Village” will air on Friday, September 9, 2016, at 9:00 pm on PBS (*check local listings).

The performance, recorded in May 2015, features musicians from the Chamber Music Society playing works by distinctive American composers, including Louis Moreau Gottschalk, Samuel Barber, and more, as well as the famed Czech composer Antonín Dvořák, who was deeply influenced by traditional American music during an extended stay in the U.S. The highlight of the broadcast will be Copland's beloved Appalachian Spring, an iconic, enduring ballet suite about a community of 19th-century American pioneers featuring the popular “Simple Gifts” Shaker melody.

While The Chamber Music Society calls Lincoln Center home, its large roster of world-class chamber musicians enables it to perform extensively all across the country, as well as internationally. In addition, CMS receives extensive national exposure on its 52-week annual radio series, and on regular broadcasts on American Public Media's Performance Today. As a result, it is one of Lincoln Center's great ambassadors of music.

Live From Lincoln Center was recognized for its broadcasting excellence last year with a Emmy Award for Outstanding Special Class Program for its 2014 broadcast of Sweeney Todd: The Demon Barber of Fleet

Street featuring Bryn Terfel, Emma Thompson, and the New York Philharmonic. This Emmy Award is the 14th major Emmy for the series. Live From Lincoln Center is also nominated for three Emmy Awards in 2016. Other upcoming episodes this fall include three PBS Arts Fall Festival broadcasts featuring the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, Lang Lang's New York Rhapsody, Joshua Bell's Seasons of Cuba, and the New York Philharmonic's annual New Year's Eve celebration.

About The Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center

The Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center makes its home at Alice Tully Hall, which has received international acclaim as one of the world's most exciting venues for chamber music. CMS presents chamber music of every instrumentation, style, and historical period in its extensive concert season in New York, its national and international tours, its many recordings and national radio broadcasts, its broad commissioning program, and its multifaceted educational programs. Demonstrating the belief that the future of chamber music lies in engaging and expanding the audience, CMS has created programs to bring the art of chamber music to audiences from a wide range of backgrounds, ages, and levels of musical knowledge. The artistic core of CMS is a multi-generational, dynamic repertory company of expert chamber musicians who form an evolving musical community. As part of that community, the CMS Two program discovers and weaves into the artistic fabric a select number of highly gifted young artists—individuals and ensembles—who embody the great performance traditions of the past while setting new standards for the future. CMS produces its own recordings on the CMS Studio Recordings label, which has been highly praised for both the artistry and the recorded sound of the eclectic range of repertoire it has released. These recordings are sold on-site at concerts in New York, on tour, and through the CMS website as well as online retailers such as iTunes. The newest media innovation, CMS Live, offers recordings both on CD and by download of extraordinary live performances chosen by CMS artistic directors David Finckel and Wu Han from among each season's many concerts. The newest CMS Live release, Simple Gifts: the Chamber Music Society at Shaker Village, features the repertoire from the Live From Lincoln Center broadcast. The recording is distributed by Naxos of America. CMS also has a broad range of historic recordings on the Arabesque, Delos, SONY Classical, Telarc, Musical Heritage Society, MusicMasters, and Omega Record Classics labels.
